Hi everyone, looks like you found us!

A lot is going to be changing and upgrading over the next few days. What you're looking at is a presentable version of the future glory.

I know you have a million questions, and I will be making some announcements and regulations postings soon. For now, look around, start a thread or two, and have fun!

Great! It's alive!

It looks just like the old one!

Question: Will you enable avatars? the original forum didn't take them but .. do you want to keep like the old one or add things.. like avatars... etc?

The future has arrived!

Pretty quickly aswell.

Hmmmm... I just noticed I can't put a smiley face on the top of my post. I guess I'll just have to do it manually until you fix this blatant bug! Apart from that, well done.

Hi !

I have like 1000 questions & comments but I'll give Crimson & co. time to finalize these new changes ! I think it's great that we have the same look & feel but I dearly hope we get back some of the other features !

YEA for n00bstories.com !

Congratulations to Crimson & co. !

The One

This looks so authentic I almost thought this was ubb ()!!!

Nice job...

I got one thing though...

Could you raise or remove the 255 character limit for the signatures? I can't put anything in my signature

For those of you wondering about the 'glitches' as I think 2 people have called them, they are not.

Incase you cant tell (which it took me a few minutes to figure out myself) that this is not the same board type that WW had. These are phpBB2 boards I am pretty sure. It's only right that they are, considering Crimson is a php coder. Plus it has better smilies and its much easier to post and then go back to the same forum you were posting in.

Hmmm...

Maybe you can make it so that it doesn't pay attention to the urls that are inside the url tag, image tag, etc.

My sig is probably <500 if it wasn't for the urls in the url tags...

If you could code it to not count the text inside the url/image tags than you could lower it to 1000 or whatever
