I find this funny. I can now tell my wife I'm working on building on my already
SUPER HUMAN BRAIN POWERS

It is a shame I fall in the dead category mentioned in the beginning. But I can be proud to say I hold the worst rank on the CS server I frequent. Last time I check 3189 of 3189.

Hehehehehe.... Thats true. Like one of my friends. He wants to smash his monitor or tv everytime he dies in any videogame. Yes he has a very short temper. Sometimes I believe he is having a heart attack.

That reminds me of a mpeg I saw back on the old Renegade forums that someone posted. Where some guy was playing Counterstrike on a LAN game against his friends and one of his friends kills him and he goes off and bangs his monitor and messes up his playing area around him. It was so funny. I wonder does anyone has the URL to that Mpeg clip.

Also teaches teamwork and tactics, thereby enhancing leadership skills during battlefield simulation. Swat teams use PS2 chips, and I'll bet they're using games like Rogue Spear and Rainbow 6!
