Sloppyjo - You crack me up man ...I hope you are kidding But if not, bring it anytime...just let me know when! I would be more than happy to take a server offline and make it private for some good ole clan battles!

In regards to the no snipers rule...that has always set us apart from everyone else. However, we do run several WON servers and they are NOT always no sniper. We don't pull the rules out of our butts...we allow our players to vote on the rules weekly. Simply visit our forums, <http://www.hazteam.com> and cast your vote today. Ever since we created the voting system, we have found that the players who played in our server (which is ALWAYS full)... prefer no snipers. Hell ... you can go anywhere and play with snipers and sniper only servers...but try to find a dedicated no snipers server... one of a kind! (it's just hard to find a server that allows snipers that has our sweet no lag connection)

Thanks
Solid

I believe that their reasoning with the no sniping rule is that sniping focuses less on teamwork and more on the individual.

Sniping in a necessity in quality clan matches. On multiple levels!

Most people fear a good sniper (especially right now during the cheating phases) and thus would vote to remove sniping completely on any server.

I just happend to be surfing these pages for the first time and I saw this post. I checked out your website (not bad), but can you back your words?

If you want to test your skillz against a GSA clan, I can hook you up.

excuse me but in clan matches we do use snipers and you will be extremely suprised that most of us are very good snipers all of us can snipe but we dont allow it ingame for reasons with cheaters being extremely hard to spot but if you play us in game i bet youd be suprised to see what we are made of

O_o, I think they're talking about the Dominion-Guild (aka DOM) from way back before the split (Note the post date). We haven't really played many clanners with Renegade lately.

Wild1Yeah, I mean you guys don't even allow sniping, Whats up with that?

We played with some HT guys in that mod/admin game on n00bsvr08 a while back, and they handled themselves great, even with snipers(mainly slash0x) in the game.

They were no match for my APC though!!1 (jk)

If they don't want to snipe, they don't have to.
