Imdgr8oneghost bump

You know your sig is too long when: It's 15 times the size of your post.

Imdgr8oneWell there isn't much I can do about it.

Actually, there are ways around the size. For one, you could start by organizing your methods of contact(AIM, Yahoo, etc) into an image. I can do that for you if you so desire; you know my AIM screenname. Second, just resize the banners a tad, Photoshop makes that task a cinch.
