That's got to be the oldest trick in the book besides the flame rush.

When I as on Vol. I was following a SBH with a STANK. He lays a nuke next to the barr, and i drive over it to cover it. There was Engi's and Hotties everywhere trying to disarm it. I run from a stright line up and down killing over 20 differ people running them over. The nuke did go off and the barr was killed. Ahh the pop up message said Archcasp kill XX (nearly 45 times) this was a 52 person game svr. It was fun as hell, all i replied with.. Road Kill Cafe.

To get tons of kills, all I have to do is drive over that hill behind the Tib field on Under with a Stealth Tank to get all the snipers I want.

Map = Under. Once upon a time, I had just bought my ST and made it out of the base JUST in time to see a GDI armor blockade complete with engineers roll up and plant themselves. I managed to go unnoticed somehow. After waiting for the repair support to "settle in" (become confident there are no snipers and just stand still to repair) I drove through them, mowed 5 or 6 down and began hitting the tanks. Actually didn't do much damage before they wised up and blew me away, but the delay and loss of engineers gave the Artilleries time to drive them off.

lots of techs in one building repairing, throw one at a: a tech or b: the ground
lots of kills or just the typical stank running over people

Heres a good one that I found very amusing. I was in that kakippi server on the USA a(66 player server I believe) and I was in a sniper battle with this one guy like all game--we were going back and forth and back and forth with killing each other.(City Flying btw) Then finally he got me again and I only had enough for a stealth. So I grabbed him and figured I would just throw a c4 on him or something. But instead I ran across a spawned sniper rifle. Lucky for me he ran outta the tunnels for a moment to go pick up a yellow box--while he did that I ran in and hid--he came back in and took up his position. Hes knocking away others and then he turns around and hes crouched. You can tell he see's me. He looks up to aim to my head and BAM! Popped him right in the head!. He came back to that spot again and I went to reload so I could have full ammo. I kept taking the top sniper spot and kept nailing him with head shots. So much for that feud.....I ended up with more kills :)Woooo! Go me.

Ahh yes, there is no more deadly unit than an SBH with a sniper rifle! As long as you don't use the scope you have as much time to move and target as you want. Much, much fun.
