I can remember way back when this forum was a good, fun, helpful place to come to, and many violations, Nod not NOD or get out of this thread and stop ruining my threads, people trying to answer for other people, people trying to tell other people what to put or not to put in there own about ON THIS FORUM. Every ones always pissed off or at least so much of the time, you regress back to when this was a nice fun place to be, or come too to receive help or to give help. We should bring those days back.

Maybe we should just ban you, because:

1. Blazer asked you not to start-up flame threads.
 2. Blazer asked you not to start-up flame threads about myself or anyone else.
 3. You demand attention and get pissy with people who don't give it to you. (Yes, I realize the irony in saying that, considering writing this is giving your sorry ass the attention you want.)
 4. You're doing nothing again... Nothing but being annoying.

you do realize your doing exactly what he says you do? just pointing that out. not flaming or whatever. plus, you do seem to criticize everyone's work, just because it may not be as good as yours. well, other people are trying to make something neat and worth playing, and even if its not as good as renalert or whatever, and just because you got glacier flying into a WW map pack, you don't have to be all pissed off at people all the time. What's that tell you? That I care?

No.

He's full of it and himself - I gave the man a chance after he tried grifting my level, then once more before that - he's still doing it. Still using his fake persona to go "Hi, can I help you?" in every thread imaginable, even if he doesn't know a damn thing about it.

"Oh, sorry, I don't know how to help with that."

Then why'd you post, you stupid fuckbean?

Remember something: This is the guy who says he doesn't want flame wars, that he doesn't want this and that, etc... Then he posts up a topic about insulting people and flaming them. Where's the logic in that, champ?

His "old timers" comment is laughable. The only old timers here are Crimson, Falconxl, and myself. We've been with this game longer than all of you have, getting close to two years now.

eh, it isn't really meant to be insulting, its meant to point something out. if i really wanted to like inult you, i would say something more like "ack, ur a dumb fuck," not pointing out how you are constantly being a critic.

You would think a community would have been able to right itself of such conflict by now, but apparently not. Oh well, this is all the reason I left in the first place, I've got much better things to do.

quoted from ack
"Hover MRLS still drives like a fake hover unit.

Mammoth Mark 2 still looks like it was textured with mostly UVW and no unwrap function. It's still extremely slow, hard to drive, and gets hung up on everything.

Stealth Tank is good.

Recon Bike drives like a tank."

We ALL flame, we all post stupid coments, we all at sometime are newbs. I agree with everyone, seriously. I agree ACK is a jACK ass at times, but arnt we all at somepoint? I agrtee that people have stolen work and items, but have we not all done it at SOME point in time? I got ren a day befor shevling froma game friend, didnt get to install it till 3 days later due to computer problems... everyone was nice, except random flames wich are comon. but now it seems everyone wants to war over something. I know ACK will probly come up at say why am I against him and saying this, and that I am a hypocrit, so would others say the same. I only am disgusted with ACK due to he has flamed 3 of my friends repeatably...

#1 Killakanz: No longer in renegade, Just does general models. He made a new apache and used the renegade skin. ACK, without looking closer at the modeling, acused him of stealing/ripping models from renegade and not doing any work. Finaly ACK admits its not a ren model, but that Killakanz still shouldnt use renegade skins.

#2 Havoc89: Who is trying his best to revive evolution and make it better then they were. ACK Imedietly flames him over how it sucks and he shouldnt do it.

#3 CaptKurt: We all post things like he did, but sevral times ACK has flamed him without thinking over.

That is why I flame and am against ACK. If he would just say sorry to all the people hese flamed, and stop flaming and being so negative twords orthers every other minute, I would shut up.

So what? No one cares if anyone said something you didn't like to any of your friends. You hear about it, you suck it up, and move on... No reason in starting something over words. And that's just what is, just words.

Joey-YThat is why I flame and am against ACK. If he would just say sorry to all the people hese flamed, and stop flaming and being so negative twords orthers every other minute, I would shut up.

Be against someone all you want, but instead of going at it the way you are, you should just ignore those who you dislike and leave it at that. Nothing you say/do is going to make anyone change, and that's how it should be. What you do is live with it and move past it. The underlined statement in the quote above is what you should have done in the first place.
