For those of you who visit PlanetCNC daily, you probably have already heard this, but for those who haven't. This is the end theme to C&C Tiberium Dawn that never was approved, they wanted to keep the game serious to the end. This song has a nice techno beat with a lot of outtakes put right into it. Click the link, then on projects, and then song of the month. Then click the little play button. While you're there check out many of the other work of arts he has there, a lot of the C&C songs from almost every C&C game.
