Do not mention Ack in a post or a thread unless is something positive or a question, or you will get big trouble.

Do not post stuff about how great your crappity crap is unless it is finished, original and done with skill, preveiwis are ok but do not hype it up.

Do some homework before you say stupid shit about shit you dont know about.

look around yourself before you ask for help.

Do not post threads like this or "state of the forums" threads.

these are just a few ways to not get flamed the fuck up by Ack and the other Elite peeps.

Call me a suck up, a brown noser or flame me because you dont like me or what I say. I dont care.

P.S. Oops, I put the wrong smiley in. (fixed)

OT: What's up with you? You're kinda being an ass, (no offence), because you keep replying to all my posts with sarcastic comments.

Because that is what all the dipshits do. "Oh he said something about my model being dumb, I'm goign to go hug my teddy bear and use thousands of curses and words taht I don't know the meanings for becuas ethen I'll be big!" CaptKurt, you used to be a good guy, but lately you have been quite an ass. You aren't God, Ack isn't god, I'm not God, but yes, for this subject, ACK's name needed to be used.

Because I'm trying to get some of the little minds in this community to be responsible with what mean read any thread here and so many have other people answering questions that were posted directly to some one else, not them at all. Or they try to post the answer to the problem without knowing a clue of what they are even saying, a place to share your ideas on mods, maps, a place to come and give help or get help on mods, maps. So many people send me e-mails all the time, because they are afraid to post here for fear helping hand from all of us to get this to be a helping, happy place again, me, you, and everyone any more.

DeafwaspOh, now I get it..... I didn't realize what a fucktard CaptKurt was before.

Me neither, but now It seems like all he does is try to flame all who oppose him :rolleyes: , especially Ack :rolleyes: . Of course now I see why Ack opposes him.

CaptKurt kinda reminds of some guy who was making a Red Alert 2 mod for Renegade, he would flame everyone who opposed him, I said he'd never finish the mod, of course he objected to that remark, but sure enough, the mod has been dormant for some time.

Apparently he's more mature than you are. If you're going to criticize someone for their maturity, at least have the common sense to at least try to pretend that you're mature.
