Got a question for ya...

Al while ago (havnt been here for almost 9 months so i missed a lot), blizzart anounced a new kinda mod, it would include much freaking new features for renegade hosting, banning members, auto kick, auto n00b detect and more of that sort of stuff!

Now i want to know, what ever happand to it? did it realy finish or is the project closed?

Blazer? Yeah it was, the program is called BlazeRegulator and there is now a .NET edition of the program. I have not used it myself but I playe on servers that use it and it works very well. I think there is a lot of those features in it now.

Get it from <http://www.blazeregulator.com/>
