It might be geocities, I had problems hosting images there.

Update,
It works above, I used

img]http://www.geocities.com/havoc_elite2003/Renegadeclub.jpg[/img

(had to remove the [and] or it posted the image again).

Did you leave a space between the image tag and the address, that might be it.

You could save the image to that computer from the link (right click save as). Then upload.

It is cus geocities doesn't allow you to directly link to pictures like that.

Save that picture to your PC then upload it to n00bstories.
