I have a couple suggestions...

First, please find someone who knows what they're doing to make a website for you. Second, find a different host, that one sucks.

A free host with unlimited webspace, unlimited bandwidth, no ads, FTP uploading, PHP and "no strings attached"? I'd like to believe it, but...um...no.

Edit: Catches - No files larger than 1MB; no music or videos of any kind including legal ones...
