I once did a poll on the Offical Renegade Forums (old ones) whether they would want me to keep the MMN server up all the time. And people said they'd rather it only be up on Saturday Nights to give it a 'special' feeling.

TheDragonhow about every other night? or even every 3rd night or something... once a week isn't enough.

I would, but it's too time consuming...

I'm working on another project at the present moment... You'll find out what it is sometime in Sept probably...

1 Time per week is not enough but every day is too much.
I think every 3 days is good.
