Yes, it's been a while since I'm thinking to do this.

I'm about to launch two Renegade Servers.

One random: 1 day sniper, one day Fan maps, etc, and a Renalert one.

Both will be BR supported.

Tomorrow Primeserv (the random one) will be officially online.
It's an 8 players server, will be on 4 hours / day approx, and the map rotation will be changed every week.

Primserv2 will be lauched later, but for this one, I'd need some help, such as donation and someone to share the bills with.

It'll be a 24 player server.

The paypal link will come as soon as I have a new cred. card...

anyways, hope that this will help the community a bit

EDIT: If you'd like to be a server moderator, email me at: aprime1gs@hotmail.com

EDIT2: PrimeServ is a 8 players server.

Underneith the words "Prime servers" the writing is hard 2 read
I think it says "we do it for the community" and the writing in the bottom right corner is hard 2 read

 But other than that i love it

The layout is fine, and I can read the text. Just don't make it too white like your last one.

Would be cool if you could see whos playing and what the scores are Would kick even more if it could remeber Player Scores and have its own shiny Ladder.

hears beeping
Damn Alarm Clock!
pulls out Bolt-Action :twisted:

Apachehttp://www.zieglerdigital.ca/downloads/PrimeServ.zip -- Give this a lookin' at, and tell me if it is up to your standards. I left a note in the header for you to read.

thanks...but now EVERYONE can get it...

Oh and you could've wait for me to send you the newest version...
+ there's a stretch (in the banner) point, and the space between each boxes is bigger.

I'll show you tonight.
