I was in FOD(Forces Of Diversion) server, as usuall I got havoc and started snipin, and I ended up with 97 Kills in total and it was in Map Under.mix, well here it goes, when the next map started I got kicked out of the game, well i am guessin they kicked me just because I had 97 Kills, cuz I know I got kicked for that, cuz I didnt do anythin in the server against the rules or anythin and I didn't say anythin to the host or any admins that were online, well right after that I signed in with my other name and went back into the server and still got kicked!! and the host still didnt allow me in!!! here some screenshots of it!

You have two links that are of the same picture! Cool :rolleyes: .
And if you have a problem with our server, why bring it here? Bring it to our forums.

I agree with Td. The lin to the forums is given throughout the game, and says that is where to address issues at.

Your story seems implausible as I am a regular there and Under hasn't been in the rotation for over 2 weeks. I am sure that I can get the logs from one of the admins and prove you are full of lets see shit?

Maybe someone else could read the logs to you, as your age seems to affect your eyesight.
Or do you just have poor aim in general?

Someone pointed me to this post and all I have to say is that in a 24 minute game you getting 97 kills seems really unlikely. The links you provide do not work and you haven't given a WOL name. So I think I agree with hareman. And for the record I run the server so stfu or give us your WOL or links that work.

While it's not probable, it's certainly not impossible, but it does take a sniper of a certain caliber;
ie. ADM, o6t9o, to achieve it.

Since I haven't heard of you, and the logs don't agree with you, I agree with hareman in saying...
You are full of shit
