<http://www.n00bstories.com/image.gallery.php?folder=97>

Thanks to Crimson for adding folder support to n00bstories. Now I don't have to post a hundred links, and you can view a thumbnail of the image before opening the full size.

As I am only fixing vis errors now, Conquest Winter has now entered the beta stage! Anyone who wants to test the map, please email me, and I'll get you the link to the beta download shortly after I upload it, which should be within a day or two. You'll receive further instructions from there.

Email me at SomeRhino@juno.com if you want to test.

Thanks.

Ugh... I deleted all my gmax files for this map on accident. Hope you testers don't find any terrain problems...

Edit: Nevermind, I just moved them to another folder.
