Go to Internet, WOL, and make an account, blah blah... it'll auto update it if you don't have patch 1.037, though you say you do.

If you do- It's only for maps that has _flying.mix after them...

Lol I can see it now:

Some Guy: Hey hitman, what's been going on at the Renegade Forums lately?

Hitman: Dunno, I was banned.

Some Guy: What for?

Hitman: I used an Avatar that belonged to someone else.

Some Guy: ROFLMAO

Some Guy: No, really what did you do to get banned?

Is KillerBee even around anymore?

There are only 3 flying maps you get with the patch. Glacier, Walls, and City. All the others you have to download.

theres onother guy named 4ircraftkill0r who is useing ACKs avatar
you can play a flying map in mutiplay practice by going to your data folder and find the ini thats says like skrimish or something then where it says map00= or something like that type after it C&C_walls_flying , C&C_City_flying , or C&C_Glasher_flying , then when you go into mutiplay practice you can fly flying vehicals but there wont be an enemy AI so really its just useless

It should have ask you to download the patch the first time you tried getting online with renegade. If your thinken there are air vecs on every map there arnt. Enless you go to <http://www.renmaps.com> or a site to download maps its only Walls Flying, Glacier, and City Flying

I don't ban for avatar theft... I just change it to a stupid-looking chicken.
