Re:The map in the beta.

CTF_Composide
C&C_Ultimate_Canyon
C&C_Icetales
C&C_Snowfort2
C&C_Desert_Siege
C&C_Conquest_Winter

C&C_Desert_Siege and C&C_Conquest_Winter are allready known to the community, they are Renegade maps. I cant say something about C&C_Conquest_Winter, but C&C_Desert_Siege has

I severely doubt they had permission to use Siege or Conquest Winter. They're already using my models and calling them their own, the Tiberium crystals I released to the public in December.

Both are pretty bad maps either through gameplay, design or looks.

If they are going to use maps without permission the least they could have done is use decent ones.

Only the fact that AoD censored everything ACK wrote is telling me that he's lying about the "Do whatever you want you very lovely person!

We have the permission of both people. What do you think from whom we have the sourcefiles? God? You? God?" part.

AoD appears to be censoring out ACK says because he doesn't want to face the truth. He DID steal the Tiberium models that ACK made, and now has come up with saying that he is going to include the maps in the initial release.

Reborn = Total shit.

I can't believe they're doing this, what a bunch of bastards. He even says the house in Conquest Winter is ugly and will be replaced, I hope this mod dies.

Wild1Conquest Winter was one of my favorite fan maps of all time.

Seriously, please consider what you're saying. That map ALWAYS ends up in a massive tank battle in the field and usually ends through points rather than base destruction.

You do realize that it's the principle of the item, not the item itself? Wow, it's just a crystal model... Wow, it's just a level they stole... Wow, it's just a bunch of vehicles they didn't make, wow, it's all this and that they didn't make...

When you don't hold people accountable for what they do, they'll do more of the same thing, just worse.

Apparently you're unaware of this, though. Kudos for blissful ignorance!

Also...

It's "What's up," not "sup."
It's "won't," not "wont."
It's "I," not "i."
It's "difference," not "differnce."
It's "OMG" or "Oh my God," not "omg."
It's "them," not "em."
It's "I'm," not "im."
It's "thanks," not "thx."
It's "thanks," not "thx."
It's "thanks," not "thx."
It's "thanks," not "thx."
It's "thanks," not "thx."
It's "I," not "i."
It's "brilliant," not "briliant."
It's "can't," not "cant."
It's "Reborn," not "reborn."

cuz if you cant ... dont tell a speculation !

I'll speculate as much as I want, thanks.

Quote:i cant beleve that they stolen a map, i think they asked!

Thinking is speculation. Didn't you just say not to do that?

Quote:what else did they stole ?

nothing ... just a crystal ... i think if you want they remove it ...

Two of my textures, and textures from a level designer who they never even asked permission because he's not in this community anymore. I have repeatedly asked for credit for what I've created and they say that they made it themselves. I've seen the mod, I've played it, and I know they're using my stuff. The least they can do is ASK AND CREDIT THE PERSON WHO MADE SOMETHING.

Quote:i think you only want to make ppl think bad about reborn cuz of "your" mod.

They really don't need any help from me to make people think badly of it.

Quote:renalert loks not as half as good as reborn ... at this time ... maybe it changes ...

This is your opinion, and you've already contradicted yourself with your opinions...

Quote:btw ...

That's nice. The least you can do is write like a decently respectable person and make what you write understandable.

Then please start showing what can be done or use that STFU image on yourself. I know what my work looks like, I'm aware of what they did, and I know exactly how they used my work in their levels.

So why don't you SHUT THE FUCK UP and get out of the thread you fucking newbie? You haven't played Reborn. You haven't seen what they've done. All you're doing is using your asscheeks as your new mouth and trying to speak on matters you know JACK SHIT about.
