Hey EA if you can see this message, then its good to know that I am not gonna be bothering you about renegade2, but If you honestly care about renegade and its fans, and if you honestly care about being popular, then release renegade2, and keep up with the C&C community, but if you don't care about renegade2, and you don't want to be popular, then don't even think about renegade2. I know you guys are popular but by releasing renegade2, you will be reborn and then you will see whats the real meaning of being popular.

Thank You

WOL name: half3lif3

LOL. Like EA gives a c$ap. The fact that they are responsible for the demise of one of my most favourite game companies makes me very angry. I plan on never buying a EA made game again from now on due to how pissed I am at them for turning westwood into $hitwood. Is Westwood still gonna put out games at all or will they put out garbage games made by a whole new team that just sponge off the glory of the C&C title? All I have been hearing so far is EA put Westwood out of business so I am not sure what all the details of all this are. Guess I'll go research this whole EA Westwood thing some more. :rolleyes:

Hello, this is Chris Rubyor.

This user was kind enough to let me use his account to type this message.

EA no longer provides technical support to old and outdated games like Renegade, and has decided to shut down the production of Renegade 2 due to lack of funding for Westwood Studios. Keep in mind that EA will continue the production of other games for your enjoyment, as Westwood Studios is no longer affiliated with EA.

Thank you, and God Bless.

Chris "Delphi" Rubyor.

I think Renegade (the first one) should be updated etc... before they come out with another. {Example : the ladder is down and that needs to be fixed. Tags? omg fix the problem, I had friend in chat making me think they are in another clan when thats false cuz tags are messed up. Put the bots back up where they used to be. Like [] such in such has been kicked from chat. I thought that was funny.} Seriously, Renegade should be fixed and improved before we go into such stuff for like Renegade 2. Truth is EA doesn't give a shit about any of us, and doesn't give a damn about Renegade. This game might die within 5 months or more. Unless EA gets there asses together (which is a 90 % chance no) and do something. The only way I believe EA will do something is if they are paid to do it. I know they are gettting paid many ways, but EA is a greedy like alot of other companies. So stfu on Renegade 2, chances are it won't happened. And expect $h1T on the horizon.
