Carved out the Valles Marineris in the Mars level... Otherwise known as huge canyons.

Both bases are complete.

The Nod base by the smaller of the two canyons.

The GDI base, by the largest canyon.

There is no physical boundary that prevents you from falling to your doom. So don't drive off or jump off. You will regret it.

Looks cool!

You should add like a crashed UFO or maybe a crashed space shuttle!

This looks super kool....

Dunno about a rover but a rover with a random waypath but a shooting star or coment would really add to the atmosphere.

Looking gud tho .

Because you're a n00b, that's why.

It's been sent to Lion, should be up today or tomorrow.

It still looks like a camping map from hell but the playtest will tell us that. I'm sure renbattle, moonlightshakers and the pitts will have it on their large server soon. Can't wait to play it though it does look good.

How the hell can you camp in that level? It's nearly impossible with all the routes you can attack from.

i have a question, did you lower the gravity in your map?
mars has 37.7% then the gravity earth does
