I wish to make a clan but it asks for my west wood online password. I have been playing renegade for a year and have not had to enter my password since I started so I forgot it . I have asked west wood to sent it to by going to their site and entering my e-mail to request my logins. I have done this about 20 times over the course of 2 weeks and no replies. Is there any other way to get my password. thanks for any advice. oh ya and sorry if you think this topic is in the wrong area.

There is noway you can get your password for now. WOL doesn't send your password to your e-mail after they had the problem with login. Sorry. There is onlyone way, you have to REMEMBER it.
