- Thank you to CnCDen, Modx, CnC Source, Renmaps, Insurrection, Renegade-Planet, RenStation.net, Seaman, General Havoc for hosting the maps!

Once again, if someone could make a .zip with all of them in it, it'd be helpful.

Time & Server Info:

This month, we'll have TWO MMN servers on Saturday, August 23rd. 5:00 PM Eastern (10:00PM GMT). We mostly did this for all those 56kers out there that lag down so bad on the large server.

#1:

Server host: BeanyServ

Players: 32

#2:

Server host: beanserve

Players: 6

Other notes:

- This will be the LAST Fan Map Night, Thank you VERY MUCH to John Shaft Jr. for donating $100 for MMN. However, since PayPal is being gay I cannot claim it or send it back to him, so it'll still be the last MMN .

I Hope to see everyone there! Last one.

I claimed it, but I can't have them send it to anyplace.

It won't let me add a credit card for one... and the only option was them sending me a check, and you need a credit card for them to send it. So it's sitting in my PayPal account, if I could send it back to you I would, but it won't even let me do that.

Archive with all the maps will be up soon. Your going to need winrar to unzip it though.

Also a note to NeoSaber about seaside canyon. I was unable to download that map and I have the map installed so I included the mix and for the readme I made a text file with your name as the author and a link to cnc source and the download url to the file when it comes back online. I hope it isn't a big problem.

My wife is having the same problem with PayPal also. She did a credit card purchase of $300.00 and the company had discontinued the product she was going to get. Now it sits in PayPal. She did everything it said she needed to inorder to get a check, but the $$$ is still sitting there. 3 weeks now.

Well, in fact, you have to send it to your bank account, but like, 2/3 of the time it dosn't work, so you have to pay for an extra 30$...
