<http://www.arm-ent.com/>

And it won't get up anymore.

As for you former ARM-ENT hosted sites, feel free to apply to the followings:

<http://www.stardust-studios.net>

<http://www.strategy-x.com>

<http://www.planetcnc.com> *not recommended because of the amount of adds...*

Oh, and please take note of this:

Vlad thinks that ARM-ENT IS the community, but that's actually a problem, since it's not.

True fighters like us ARE the HEARTH of the community, wannabe gangstas like this mafia impersonator aren't.

Big hand for the masters of this community! Crimson, blazer, lefty, ACK, Dante, and many others that I won't name because I just don't want to.

Do not listen to someone like Vlad, he gave up...And most important thing is, do not listen to what he said about SDS, SDS is good, the war with SDS is just in Vlad's mind.

The only thing I have to thank Vlad for is for hosting most of the C&C Community mods, such as RenAlert and many others...

Remember, the community is alive, and it shall never die, we've faced a crisis like that before, you probably all remember FedNET...

Well, FedNET had babies, those babies were Arm-ENT STX, and SDS.

Who knows? Maybe Arm-ENT will have babies?

Aprime, Vlad spent alot of money and countless hours working to keep the Community over at Arm-ent alive, dont be so fuckin mean about it, he gave up, but can u really blame him? all he did was help the community grow and be bigger to prolong the CnC gaming world.

P.S. To all Modern Warfare members i will be taking our site off the Arm-ent FTP so we can keep the great layout that Bear made us. We will keep in touch through E-mail, check them for updates on a new site host.

Erm, guess that you didn't read the whole thing.

There was good stuff and bad stuff with Arm-ENT.

and I've talked about them in the first post.

OrcaPilot26Arm-Ent was a pretty good network, too bad it's closing.

Yes, but it had some authority problems.

For example, Vlad tried to ruin the reputations of Spiderman_2009,FireStorm,FinalMoon and Smiffgig who are working on Tiberian Sun Retro mod together with me.

He was jealous because he lost his best voxel maker to us.

AprimeVlad thinks that ARM-ENT IS the community, but that's actually a problem, since it's not.

True it wasn't, but alot of people did go there that don't come here so in a way we have lost a slice of the over all comunity

Arm-Ent was the best, and always will be.

Vlad was a good man, he gave so much, paid so much, and for what?! NOTHING! He spent thousands of dollars a year for almost nothing in return.

When I tried to make my own dev. network, I understood pretty quick that it was impossible for me to pay that much money alone.

I guess that Vlad didn't get that one, you have to get others to pay for it too, it's like, impossible to afford all this alone, unless you really have a good job like dante.

Friend is starting a new net and we have the funding with other clients. If you have a steady site or something actually worth out hosting we would be happy to host the refugees.

Aprime<http://www.arm-ent.com/>

<http://www.planetcnc.com> *not recommended because of the amount of adds...*

What amount of ads?

We have a single ad per page. Either a top horizontal banner on hosted sites and feature pages, or a tower ad on the front page of PCNC itself and our forums.

There's the odd interstitial that comes up once a week or so (if you cookies are working properly). And no pop ups, unless you have spyware on your PC (use Ad-Aware to get rid of spyware and no popups).

One ad is not a bad price to pay for a stable network, professional tech support, e-mail accounts, unlimited bandwidth and unlimite storage, as well as the promotion of the GameSpy Network. Is it?

Amount of ads my ass.....
