I'm looking forward to it. But I don't see ANYTHING special about that teaser except for some editing of the sun.

If you're going to do something that the majority of people doesn't want to see, then prepare yourself for the backlash that comes from it.

Don't try and be a hardass if you can't handle what comes with it.

Well, it's not the first, I don't know if you recall, but like, 2 months after the game was release, someone did a crappy naval map...With no fixed view, and you could hardly get in the boats...

Don't ask me, Laser isn't really talking to me, everytime I'm on he's AFK.

And I'm going for a week now, so...
