Here is what we ned as server admins from you guys

A frikkin name by itself will not do anyone anygood.

So, we need the server name time of day and some decent description of WTF was going on.

Don't provide this and watch your post get deleted because its useless spam otherwise.

If you do provide us with this info we can IP ban him from all the good servers.

He exercised the freedom to post comments on a thread you started. By firing off childish names, unacceptable of such comments, you brought even more criticism upon yourself.

In the manner this is written, it is indeed very confusing. I'd ask for clarification, although I'd probably get called "retarded" as an answer. Well, lets see.. [FoD]foenixz{L}, what did you mean by that statement?

I've been keeping a list of cheaters and possible cheaters that I run into, and placing them on my ren buddy list to keep track of (Which I have dubbed my "n00b tracker"). I can get IP's for some of them as they were banned by me from the Crimson79 server, but others were passed by word of mouth, or from other servers that I visited where I don't have access to that information.

Some names so far:

G0ldeney3
GeniusPr0
bcm2003
AimBotNot
imortalnz
inst1029
betaperso
domino188
vashdx
tchnomtsr

zbgzt
nukermax

We have a far biggest list in the server owner's forum. All these cheaters and quickly finding themselves banned from most of the good servers in the community.

It will be <http://www.renguard.com> but I'm still waiting for DNS to propagate and the site just says "renguard.com" right now.
