This is the kind of stuff that you do that makes people think that you are the jerk. Aprime is who he is, accept him for it, or just shut up.

Thanks for the correction, tolerate is a better word for application to lots of people in these forums...

I personally have no problem with Aprime, but I do have problems with other people who just whine and complain and don't do anything for the game, unlike Aprime who is trying to make maps and such.

Dufis791:

Aprime wouldn't be rude to you unless you did something to annoy him in the first place. People don't randomly target people and just decide to be rude to them for no reason at all.
