Some of you may already know that the CW vs community war is startin to ster up again with crimson coming back to those forums and people that des like her flameing her

http://136.142.210.78/CW/ubb/CGI/ultimatebb.cgi?ubb=get_topic;f=14;t=002154

And i was reading that and i was thinking how stupid it was to sit there arguing on a message bored instead of arguing on a message bored why dont we settle this in the game that we are arguing about

The Clan Wars Forum vs The Community Forum
15vs15 20vs20 even 25vs25

You get your best people together and ill get the people from the CW forum.

Cmon you guys know this will be fun lets do it.

Now, from readin this post 1 of 2 things can happen:

- A - Crimson and her "community" will dodge all of us.
- B - Or they will accept, but still lose anyway.

Either way its a win-win situation for us (CW). But it'd still be fun to prove to them how much this side of the community sucks. (No offence of course).

What makes you think anyone cares?

There are nearly 1500 people on this forum, how can you pick just 25? (if this is the case)

I can properly be certain we have the most talented players in the Community (whole) on these forums. I say learn how to spell, because i can't understand some different language that clearly isn't English.

And yes, i loved that quote. It was so lame, so lame i wanted everyone to see it.

first of all of who the fuck are you??? Second of all yeah i agree CW would bitch slap any team that would come out this "Community" because most of them are newbies worshiping and kissing some ass to the moderators and admins which suck as well.

I really doubt this match is ever going to happen. It has been asked before for a match against CW forums VS N00bstories and N00bstories dodged us bigtime because they knew they would lose and i still don't see a former member on this community good enough to play on a game like that, I'm including ACK, Blazer, Crimson and the rest. They are just known as good players even though they only play each other so that means only a few people have seen them play but it's all about butt kissing the "Renegade heroes".

Good players aren't those on public servers. the great players and old school are those that play clangames if you think i'm lying try to play a high ranked clan on CW and get slaughtered by them.

I've met some pretty incredible players off this forum... Players like Kingdud, MetroidFX, Hero2022, Sldghost, and others... I'm sure that they could whip up a pretty sweet team if they put some effort into it... Just that we honestly don't care about your little mafia, so go and sit in your flame infested forum and leave us alone.

Well, I don't know where you got "They only play against themselves" from because I've been playing this game far longer than almost everyone here has, besides Crimson and PiMuRho.

About 1.6 years of gameplay in Renegade. I've been in over 5,000 games during that time.

I've met just about anyone you can think of. Quite to the contrary of what you wrote, I rarely play against or with Crimson\Blazer\whoever else you listed. I usually play on any server I feel like joining. Sniping only, standard games, deathmatch... That's what I play.

As for me being a n00b, sure, I guess you can say that. I haven't met many n00bs with a kill\death ratio of 3.9 with over 150 games on The Pits ladder system, along with a an averaged score of 2,000 points per game.

I don't really know if I'd want to play. The only organized matches I participated in were during my days in -WL- when we had some great clan matches.

thats pretty funny apache. kingdud=wl. he tried to come back along with some other wl one month,,,got torn up. didnt win one game, so they quit again. you can talk all big but lets play a game, see how you fair against us. you all think you are sooo good, but in fact, you sooo suck. we dont even have to play our best 10 and wed win. lets play like 15v20 we still win. most of you noobs are so unorganized its sad. if you think kingdud is so great then your in for a huge surprise. he wasnt even that good back in the day. and ack if someone always has over 2000 points in a game,,,it=POINT WH3333333333. that also means if they join a game with 2 mins left then they still manage? well, ack, you may have met alot of people and played along time,,,but ive been playin since april 02 as well. lets get a game ack, 10v10 or more. it would be pathetic how bad we stomped u.

So you're already quite content with your statements of victory. What would it matter if we played you, anyhow, since you've already won?

It seems like nothing more than the ramblings of an adolescent teenager trying to prove he has a bigger penis than someone else.

WL is and was a joke of a clan. 1000 hours of beta plus the solo missions were their only advantage back when the game came out. the guys you said Kingdud, Metroid....tried to came back to renegade about 6 months after and realized that people knew how to play the game and they got bitch slapped around for almost all clans so plz if your going to mention good players do so at least 5 months after the game came out because "good players like them" had an advantage which was that they knew how to play the game before it came out for the rest.

Now Ack as this thread says if you have that you are a super skilled player for laddering whore and playing public games all day you are so damn wrong as my last post said "ladder wh0r3es aren't and will never be good players, they are just that point wh0r3s. Playing another clan as good as you...That's when your true skill comes up".

Um, n00bstories isn't a clan. The members of this forum isn't a clan. It's not going to happen. At the very least, not until RenGuard comes out.

Now go back to the CW loser forums where all the rejects hang out.
