Ok well have you ever been kicked wrongly because you were acused of cheating? I was kicked out of many games because they all thought i had a stupid cheat on. These hosts keep thinking that i have aimbot or some stupid cheat usualy because I'v killed people wile there were a stealth at a close range. Just because of the cheats going on they think i must have one on because i can do that, but as we all know stealth's special ability is disabled to any one who is close to the stealth. Has this ever happend to you?

I've been kicked once when I had 40 kills. Of course this wasnt my fault when people beaconed all the buildings and I was the only sniper left.

Is it possible under laggy conditions for a stank or a SBH to suddenly be visible?

I was playing complex once, and a stank appeard next to a wall. I spotted it and shot at it with my med tank. After destroying the stank the former owner accused me of a stelth skin or cheat. I don't have either, but I saw the stank uncloaked.

The stank wasn't firing, so I can understand why the owner was frustrated with my spotting them. I don't know what caused it. Suggestions?

That's not so much of a cheat. It's more like taking advantage of resources.....

With knowlegde that cheats exist...this game is turning into CS...

n00b: "OMG! u Fing haxxor! u killed me with ur n00b cann0n aimbot!"

Vet: "No I didn't u n00b, it's something you don't have...it's called skill."

Hopefully Rengaurd will solve some of our "CS problems"...

Peace out,

I'm hardly ever accused of cheating. Not that I'm a bad player, but sniping is hard on 56k

I have 56k also (dont flame) and id dosent make it harder it makes it easyer because a lot of people are walking into walls or sumthing. The only disadvantige is getting shott after u move into a safe location.

I was kick out of over 3 games today due to the massly spread cheats. I was acused of having aimbot, final renegade, & big head mod. This really pisses me off. Stupid overreacting n00bs who dont even give warnings when they kick... Will there ever be a day when newbs/n00bs and pro's/smart people can live together with out kicking each other. Anyway if we did newbs/n00bs wouldn't be newbs/n00bs any more. Lets hope this anti cheat thing people are working on wont be a lie in hopes of controlling the n00b population.

well about the stank, if it cloaks without fireing they might have pressed their right mouse button acciedentially. Hey CptGoHard, didn't know you looked about here.

I have been booted many a game for 'cheating' and being a 'haxxor' by many a newb when it was just the simple fact they sucked and couldnt hit me at all while i just used my eng pistol to take them out. wasnt hard when they run straight at you or just move alil to the right or left. most newbs dont know that 4 head shots with pistol kills most players, i unload just about all of a clip and kill anyone i fight with a eng, throwing in lag and stuff i usually need a full clip.
