Why the hell would you want to do that?

It's exploiting a bug. It could be considered cheating too.

On servers like The Pits and KatieServ, you will be kicked for it.

Hmmm, are you talking about me?

If you are, I'm sorry. I didn't realize... I can change it.

I'm just waiting for my avatar to be put up. Until then, I'll find something else.

Well I dunno about the cheat but in windows when you press *cough* those buttons it freezes all the other programs to bring up the tank manager which allows you to close any programs you want. Well the fucked that up in Windows XP because the tank manager is actually an application, so if a program freezes you cant use it cus it won't even come up! I hate Windows XP!!!
