Stuck on this level, need some help please...

Cannot find an Ion Canon Beacon, do not have one.....where is it ? Looked everywhere.....

Cannot also open the Door to the Power Plant area.....this may be something to do with not finding the Ion Canon Beacon and completing that stage.....

Help please.....

well you dont get the beacon untill after you take down the lazer fence and you do that by killing the power. It was easy for me i still had the mammy when i got up to the power planet but im sure theres a way in... In the single player theres a ladder leading up to the top of the power planet try climbing up that ladder then going down the elevator, that brings you right to the mct.

I just finshed beating the game again on commando yesturday... wow cammando is insane omg i dont no how they expect newbies to beat it on cammando when a vet like me had trouble doing it. I had to reload "stomping on holy ground" 7 times before i beat that shit...

Ummmm, you had trouble on commando?

Some "veteran" you are. :rolleyes:

I doubt you could beat your meat without help.....
