Ok Ok Ok.....

THX for the tips, but..

Let me explain. We search somebody who can do the site.

We are not searching Construction Kits. We search for a Person.

So can somebody help????

@ACK:

Thx for closing the main thread...

ok... I explain...

we are searching for a web site designer, someone who can make a web site for Genegade.
I have web space + a forum, so the only thing we need is a web site.

forum: <http://genegade.laeubi-soft.de/forum/index.php>

the mod is about renegade into generals. to be a bit more clear, we make a renegade mod, with generals structures and vehicles.

now, if there is any interest in making a web site, then please reply or mail me at slayer143@hotmail.com

Thanks

(ps. sorry for spelling mistakes, English is my second language.)

I can do Flash menus if you need any or anything let me know.

These forums are beginning to piss me off with people locking, deleting and moving posts.
