Ok, i made a simple model replacement for DBZ, what it does is replace the GDI soldier with Krillin, and the Nod soldier with form 2 freezer. These are free to use in any mods, i actually dont care what you do with them.. I know people have been saying about making a DBZ mod for Renegade, so i will just do a minor of that - these are free to use in any mods you want them to be in.

Download from Fileplanet

I'm a DBZ fan, and those models look pretty cool, although the cartoonish nature of them looks a bit out of place in a normal game of Renegade...maybe you should team up with some folks and do a complete DBZ map/conversion.

Im already in alot of mods, the new TRTA (which has stopped again i think) and starwars mod which is making great progress (www.swmod.cjb.net). Well, they are cartoonish cauz the skin is made obviously from pictures off the internet, and some bits drawn by me with circle gradients - so on. I love the cartoonish affect, if you see my iron man

Maybe doing an eva unit as a vehicle would be more of a challenge (not a request).

Vegeta must have been quite hard to get right, what with the dodgy hair... but didn't take ya long did it?

Hope to see more stuff like this from you..

Heh, i actually forgot to add the M thing on his head, but it is added now . Amazing how many clothes he wears, haha.

What do u mean making an eva unit as a vehicle? I dont understand.

It took me about 3 hours to get right, The hair was actually easy, just make a half sphere which is about 100 polygons, and lift up some polygons to make it.

This was made with Milkshape 3d so that is all easy. I love milkshape 3d

Well, I think Advanze should make FF character models. Like the Blue mage from FFTA as the hot wire model. That would kick ass. Then the assassin could replace Sakura and the Sniper could replace another sniper.

I made all of these appart from krillin, which i got from a friend called psionic design - who i hate now.

The story of that model - He asked me for an alien model, so I asked psionic design for one of his, i had no idea he stole it, and i said to psycho army that I made it, then i figured out psionc design didnt make it (although he didnt tell me that he did make it) so then I get the blame... I really should have said I made it, so i would get the blame.

I do make my own models on most occasions, on my new mod i have models which are made from the public and sent to me, also models made by me. I am currently working on solid snake (again, as i lost the first model cauz i deleted the .3ds and my gmax version of it corrupted).

Please dont think I steal models, and if you knew how to mod Quake 3 arena, you would realise that the character models from that are in some funny shape (i have modded it somewhat in previous history). I am now on Reneade Starwars mod (which you can definitely not steal models for!!) and my mod which i am on - which is from the public which got sent to me, and myself.

Im trying to forget about the incident with the alien thingy model. Also that bid for power mod, the models dont look similar at all :/
