It's not a dildo, retard, it's a 30mm cannon shell from an A-10's GAU-8\A "Avenger" cannon.

HMM i would suspect a army surplus store for the bullet thats pretty cool i have bullets from the civil war and i got to get in an apache and point the gun and shit lol we got a army show thing where they brought tanks, jets, helicopters, humvees, and MRLS and i you could get in them. They also had a hudge thing of guns you could pick up and shit and they had one that is the best sniper rifle the army has right now and it looks EXACTLY like a ramjet. I think it was still not a widespread wepon because i know for a fact that the most used sniper rifle in the army and the second best sniper rifle in the army is the exact same gun as the AWP from CS its just called somethn differnt.

I have a GDI logo from Jeff (the first one he ever gave away, and he came to my hosue and hand-delivered it to me), and I have a Renegade mousepad that I got from Westwood for helping them fix the FDS exploit that WSE was using to crash my server.

Pride of place goes to the RA2 poster - the one depicting a Soviet attack on NY (this was before 9/11) - it was later withdrawn due to it's depiction of the WTC.
It's also signed by the Renegade QA team
