I don't know if anyone already knows this, but on the <http://www.dune2k.com> forums, someone posted a link to the site of a concept artist with some Dune 2000 concept art on it. It also has much concept art from Tiberian Sun, some of which look really great, like the GDI starport:

I've looked at his site a couple of times. I really like the tiberium plant life he made.
