I thought this was an old post about the first version to start with. The new version looks good, i'll have to take a look when I get home.

It's Temple of Nod, not Shrine of Nod.

No, it's the Shrine of Nod. That is its exact description for multiplayer Renegade.

Yes hes right. Sadly.

Why the fuck did they call it the shrine of nod!?

BTW is it just me or is the refinery missing almost ALL of its textures?

I'm missing a lot of textures on the Nod Refinery, not quite as many but still a lot of WW logos on it. It is installed on my 120GB drive that has a clean install of Renegade so no other fan maps installed.

General Havoc It is installed on my 120GB drive that has a clean install of Renegade so no other fan maps installed.

The missing textures are in one of his other maps. I think it might be GlacierTS. Same thing happens when you try to play a map with the older Conyard and you don't have BasinTS.

That happens to me when I look at it from a distance. But when I get closer it looks just fine.

Ooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooh!!

Looks really good ACK, glad to see you're still makin' maps.

Btw, no skinning problems with me.

I was a little disappointed that the recon bikes were removed, but hey we'll learn to survive without them.
