You know what else we need? Less ignorant n00bies like you who post pointless and stupid topics. We need more informed and respectable people to give their opinions in subjects that actually relate to what is going on in the forum or the modern world.

AND WE NEED RENGUARD TO HURRY UP.

I have never in my life time been a n00b, but I have at one time (about 8 years ago) been a newb to computer games.

Umbral_DelaFlareYou know what else we need? Less ignorant n00bies like you who post pointless and stupid topics.

What we do need less of here are forum trolls who go around every topic posted by new guys and slaughtering them with sarcastic and irrelevant replies... just because they are practically the only threads being posted right now doesn't mean you (not specifically you umbral) have to post a spam reply.

Amazes me how many people around here flame a newbie who just came to the forum for some info and intelligent replies...

I beg to differ, npsmith....

This is not an intelligent post. If he had read some previous thread before he posted, he would have not asked a stupid question like he did.

Who are you calling a forum troll? Look at the number of posts I made. Comparing the other people in here to me, they already are two feet tall, big noses, and large pointy ears.

Now get me a soda, you incessantly annoying troll!

I only have one thing to say.

Use Proper English on the board or other people will have difficulty understanding your points.

(I have been a newbie, but not a n00b)

1. He never said that gumgum904's post was intelligent. He said...

Quote:Amazes me how many people around here flame a newbie who just came to the forum for some info and intelligent replies...

2. You apparently haven't been informed about what a "troll" is... Post count has nothing to do with being a "troll". What do the fairy tale trolls do? They wait under bridges and attack innocent people who cross their bridge. What do "online" trolls do? They look around for a newbie/n00b/idiot to post something stupid/whatever so they can attack, make fun of, insult, flame, whatever him.

3. Trolls don't get real cola, sorry. But here's some flat Pepsi (Evil Sugar Water) for ya. :twisted:

drkhazeyea, and in all that time, you never learned to start disabling that long as hell signature

I like my signature the way it is, and the only way I will get rid of it is if the Moderators tell me to.
