You could try <http://www.laflava.com> and <http://www.voiceacting.co.uk> if they are any help. It's your best bet to get some decent voice acting.

I have a great microphone which records almost perfectly, so I might be able to help.

My voice is alright, I'm sure my hardware and voice aren't as good as DJLaptop's though.

Unless of course you want singing or something, then I am definitely not your man

So far I got Forsaken (almost perfect) and TheMouse (also very usefull).

Can use more people for more varied sounds, such as death sounds and other stuff. Anybody here good at immitating Building crumbling sounds just kidding.
