If you guys have maps that are not located in the map section on renstation.net, please upload your new releases here: <http://www.renstation.net/uploads/>

Im trying to keep the largest collection of Renegade maps at renstation.net, and I would appreciate if you guys upload your new releases.

Maps Only! We will have a skins section once we get our scripting done for the map section. Once you upload the files, people can start downloading them right away. The link to the files will be <http://www.renstation.net/uploads/files/ONLINENICK>

People can download the files from there until I have added them to the map section. I hope this helps out some people.
