This can't be proven, anyway. How do we know that you didn't take the bigheads out and took the picture?

Print screen button. Yea after I took my screenshot no one told me that n00bstories accepts TGAs so I had to sit there for 15 minutes and try to figure out how to make it a Jpeg.

unf00kssooooo next time post a pic that shows the enemy yea his really able to load just the ENEMY big head each map with out know what team his gonna be on

1 thing i find dodgey is the blue colour on his sniper rifle why do you need that..

Looks to me like it's just a gun skin. A cool looking one at that. What point would a click bot serve to just hit the opponents gun... that is if they also have the 500 cred sniper rifle.

Well for some reason one of the skins I downloaded came with that blue sniper rifle skin. I'm too lazy to look for the file and remove it, so I'm keeping the blueness because of my lazyness. Although I do use the m4 rifle model, Halo gun rifle for 150 sydney that I got before CnC Ammo went down, the pistol made by Srean before CnC Ammo went down, the shotgun made by Srean before CnC Ammo went down, and lets see...rifle, pistol, sniper rifle, shotgun,....oh yeah the rest of the skins have a gray tint from the old skin pack known as the "Elite weapons" from CnC Ammo or Renegade Realm forgot which one. Other then that I am using some other character skins from CnC Ammo, RenRealm, and one from C4Kitty.

You have the blue colour on your sniper rifle because of the skin you downloaded to remove the black tint from your sniper scope, which is cheating the game.

So in effect of proving you don't cheat, you have just proved that you do.

Eh? I have the green tint still. I don't want the clear sniper rifle because I read it gets confusing because the user thinks they are un-zoomed.

EDIT: Well that tint remover better come in a weapon's skin pack titled "Elite Weapon skin pack" downloaded from CnC Ammo at 584KB. Also wouldn't the Ramjet need to be altered as well so it loses the tint. So no dude, I don't cheat unless you count altering the SBH's main color from red to white.

2nd EDIT: Holy crap 48.2MBS of skins. Damn, I should remove some of these. Lets see.....I like them all though. Should I keep the SBH as a Ghost soldier or turn it into the Technostealthy. Should I go with the APC with Devinoch's picture on the back or the Allied APC made by Darkblade back on Ren Realm.

has anyone thought that these screen shots people make may not mean a thing???? what if there is a cheat out there like on cs that just aims at head??? The only real way to tell if there cheating is to A:Get rengaured to say it B:To get a screen shot of there score yourself if its 143 kills and 2 deaths i think its pretty self explanitory they are a cheater cause that aint possible

If my memory serves me well I had a K/D of 16 to 3 +/- . I know I had either a 3.0, little less or alittle more.
