I personally don't like it, people just can't seem to take the game as seriously as I want them too. Not that I'm a serious person at all.

Hmmm okidoki, i play on GSA, and i agree with u..
but know this, not everyone are those n00bs!
many ppl on GSA take it serious. im in DFC clan, we'r serious.
but, haha, of course, no one are serious all the time!

There's nothing "n00b" about the bygames servers. Until their closure a few weeks ago, they were the longest-running Renegade servers around. N00b.

Bygames ran 3 Renegade server (A total of 88 slots), which where full during the evenings. And there for making it the most popular GSA Renegade server.

there ya go someone turns yet another thread into a flame well done longbow
you just proved gamespy IS more childish and retarded just for the record i play on both but rarely go into GSA to chat because most lobbies turn into flame wars

i connect to GSA servers with ren ip and play on wol cos its nice to see some stats at the end of the month
i would also say from experience WOL has more ambitious player who want to win (mainly i suspect because of stats) so therefore take the game more serious

Um, atleast Pi knows how to use quotes properly.

As for cheats, we had the same as other servers, but since we had 3 servers, we had 3 times the amount of cheats.

And some people's opinions on cheaters variey, just cause you say they cheat, doesn't make it so, remember when you thought I freckin cheat, when I just got 1 single headshot on you.

1. Mylo has been on bygames ONCE (that I know of). I was AFK, but monitoring the server, was he kicked?? no!
  2. Why would I flee because of Mylo, we never even said anything to each other, because I muted him, and never unmuted him.
  3. I am still on GSA, just rarely on the Renegade lobby, because I don't have it installed anymore (was getting boring and I need the disk space), i'm on GSA playing other games.

Hi

i have been playing on GSA since the demo days of renegade, and i must admit that it has its fair share of n00bs and general a$$holes, otherwise 80% of the clans share a real good bond and most get along very well. The main selling point of Gsa to me is the community aspect, the lobbys are usually spoilt by a select few, and thats nothing what the mute cant handle. I have tried to play on WOL and i found it to be a little "sterile" in the way in which the community interacts, i admit i have a rather limited experience of WOL though.

As for the bygames servers, although i for one appreciated their exisistence there is no denying the fact that it was generally the first place that people went once they bought renegade. Although overtime i felt that the By servers were slowly degrading, the pings were generally good, but there was an substantial amount of server lag, and i for one have had many run ins with longbow. The most heart breaking point of the bygames servers closing was all the n00bs (not newbies) and cheaters migrating to the other servers and generally diluting the game for the serious and fairplaying gamers. none of this post was meant to cause offence or restart the flamewar, it is just my 2 cents so take it as you feel necesarry. If anyone from WOL would like to come play in a heavily moderated and cheat free server please feel free to drop into one of the alliance server's, information for these servers can be found at <http://ceoclan.net/publicladder/> or pay us a visit at www.dfc-hq.net

Sometimes I'll play on GSA. The server I do play on is Ground-Zero Renegade I think. Most of the people that play on GSA are fairly easy for me, I go there to boost my ego. =P

But if I feel like a challenge I'll play on WOL.

There's a real big issue about WOL'ers going to GSA. You'll be a complete outcast.

..Because 90% of WOL'ers come one GSA to say how "crap" it is, and how WOL owns it, I don't know why they do it, cause there out-numbered 10-1

I never said GSA is crap, I was just stating that most of the people I play with there seem a little easier than the ones I play with on WOL. I wasn't making sun of it.

And what do you mean by being an outcast? The last time I remember we didn't have to sign any papers statng that we will be rejected if we play on a different server.

Playing on GSA doeasn't make you a n00b. WOL has waaaayyyy more players, but LOADS of them are cheaters/MEGA n00bs/afkers/people who are wierd.

Thats part of the reason i started to play on GSA. GSA tends to be more mature.

Mylo is seen as a n00b to al because he choses to act that way. He's cool and just doesn't give a shit LOL But this is OT.

GSA is cool, because of easy game switching. Its about equal to WOL, but joining games in WOL is slightly faster, and WOL has a nicer "warm" feeling to it. GSA is just a little more convenient with the unrestricted names.

Its just the little things.

Dan Solo

I can see where you would get this from, i must admit when i first started playing renegade, it was hard to find a community to get involved with.

As a hardcore Tiberian Sun player, the gaming community there was phenomenal. But once i looked more into Renegade i could see the gaming community here was very strong.

The majority of the large organised servers had there own communitys, for instance, from what i can remember.. The-Pits is proberly one of the oldest communities on Renegade. But not forgetting the earlier communities like the Wolf servers. You just had to rummage.

The community here is very strong, the chat rooms on WOL are sterile...

Anyway..

As for GSA..

MAY IT BURN IN HELL
