here is a little tip ive found.... Ok usally a GDI team will plant mines at the front of the barricks, and the sbh's go thourgh and blow them up and die but 1 or 2 make it in then or before it is completely remined. Tired of this problem???? Well buy a humvee and line it up with the barricks, push w a tad and squeeze urself into the front section. Now the hardest part. Page someone else on your team and tell them come over to barricks and open walk up to door and open it u must be perfectly inlined with the door space and as soon as it opens hit the gas and your inside hte barricks with your humvee and teammates lauging and taken screen shots of you.get in back of barricks with an engee and point that 50 cal at the door they aint gettin through you and if they get in and runin around simply run there asses over

Actually, that'd be more useful if that was your last building and Nod was storming in.

Oh yeah, this works on all maps expept flying maps.

Here's a little warning, most good servers will kick you for doing that. So don't be a n00b and take away a vehicle which could actually be used to win the game for your team.

Meh, I do it on Complex when I have nothing better to do.

Once we even go three Hum-Vees in the barracks.

its a trick not a stratigy just a little fun ass thing to do and it can be used to help win for your team on islands by stoping the barricks from gettin blown up everytime. i only do it when im board as hell usally i just get me a deadeye or blackhand and go snipen.

Wtf are you smoking? if its inside its easy to disarm just c4 the bitch and disarm, god if you want to stop your barracks from getting blown up drive around it with your humvee. put 2 remotes on so if u need to get out and a sbh takes it you blow his ass up.

It's your vehicle, you bought it with your own money. You can do it.

at least the vehicle would be put to use, I mean it could be worse if a vehicle was bought and the driver did jack all or went AFK in it and it would be useless. Besides it protects the pedestal which is found in the Barracks on most maps.

If you want to protect the ped, get a havoc, pretend your afk, as soon as he lays his nuke hs his ass and disarm it, more pts and fun

Putting a Hummer in your own building is lie the biggest distraction on your our team. Then Nod stank rushes and you lose...

I was in a game where some idiot got a humvee stuck in the AGT and would not get out of it. Anyone whos spawned in AGT had to kill themselves or be stuck in their for the whole game.

Majiin ur right about the waste of a tank but with a mobius instead?!?! comon now i can kill a mobius with a soldier, mobius is a waste of money and energy, although ya they work good against noobs they get killed way too quik with people that know how to aim but hey its koo w/e u play best with i guess gotta go..... snipe ya all later :twisted:

sumthin even better, take that hummer and prepare yourself a buggy bomb perfect for flamer and stank rushes as they have to get close if theres too many snipers, apc bomb as an alternate to proxies, remotes r good, just box them in with a friend, hop out, BOOM the remotes allow u to get the same punch wihtout usin ur bases precious mines lol i luv buggy bombs in defensive levels or wen they have one or two last vechs after wf/as is toast, just run up and boom tank is gone as well as all who repaired it call me a n00b if u wish, i have counted and taken out a med with the standard 30 proxy buggy bomb, a stank with the 8 remote set up, and flamers omg so many flamers with the proxies as well bcuz naturally they go strait 4 you

try it, its a blast

lol i made a funnie

btw BS to the guy sayin hes smokin the redhair, maybe u should come down and ill show you the good stuff

A better trick with the hummer is to put proxy c4 on it so you blow engineers who try to put c4 on it as your driving.

The driving the hummer into the barracks is just pritty dumb unless your board and it would be boring sitting in it for 20min or so.

no need, I just don't understand why people do it. it's like when someone makes a post using l and i in the same way. I could understand mistaking l for i and using i all the time, but to use l "and" i in the same post is a lack of care for the post.

back on topic..lag'll probably get in the way of getting passed the sandbags in any vehicle, and even moreso the trip from the inside of the sandbags to the interior of the building. I'd recommend camping with a mobius using V targeting to face away and pretend you're AFK, but close enough so that you'll see anyone trying to get in.
