Hi all,

I was wondering if I lost my server serial for my login is there a way to get it back because I can't find it anywhere and I have 2 of them and think they should be accessible from somewhere.

Can anyone help?

Cheers

You won't be able to get it back from WOL and you can't get any new ones at the moment. Your best hope is to keep searching - if you wrote it in a textfile or something, check any un-delete programs you have - might be recoverable! Losing stuff like that just sucks!

I have managed to find one of them so I am a little happier.
Also I remember that I have them written down in a book but that book aint at my house it is at my other house.

When I go back there I will pick it up.

Me is happy now
