I had the full version of Adobe Photoshop 6 and illustrator and all that good stuff. With my computer crashing I lost all of the setupfiles and whatnot. Anyone know where I could redownload this? Thanks

Well you said download it. And well, downloading stuff you normally pay for is illegal. And assuming you don't have a cd you never actually payed for it. I do have a zip file with photo shop 7.0 in it, and im on aim right now.

just let him download a PS trial from adobe.com

That's legal. If he wants to crack it, then he can probably download a crack on Kazaa or elsewhere, just not here :rolleyes:

I had a disk for it with a valid cd key. But, when I returned the computer I had to return the disk for it since it came with it......

So now you don't have the right on a legal copy anymore... http://www.adobe.com

kickme.to/xaliasx
And you are better off not messing about with the trial and cracking it...Half the features are missing.
