The bot logs in fine to the irc channel and you can use the ingame commands but when I try to use some of the commands nothing happens.

Exampel

Player ckain joined the game
<Tomten> !ids
No Players
<Tomten> !players
No Players
ckain: Howdy HI
<Tomten> !msg hey
Host: (Tomten@IRC): hey
<Tomten> !autoannounce
<Tomten> !showmods
Player Angry_Viper_Jr joined the game
Player <[SRF]>M-stfa joined the game
<Tomten> !players
No Players

And I have register myself to the bot so I need to type in the password when I join the game but the bot didnt tell me and when I tried anyhow I got this:

You are not on the server. You can't authenticate yourself.

Anyone got a clue whats wrong, did I misstype anything in the settings files?

It is obvious that brenbot can't talk to the server using my wrapper. Check if you can connect to the wrapper using telnet, and the password is the same. This is the only solution to the problem. Also, be sure that you start the server/wrapper before brenbot, because brenbot will only attempt the connection -once-.

Can you explain what those do and how they differ from the commands here:

Those are the same commands, with descriptions.
