It probably won't get finished, it's made by the same "Renegade rejects" that couldn't cut it here.

Still, I think that the HoN and Laser models look pretty nice.

Aircraftkiller! It probably won't get finished, it's made by the same "Renegade rejects" that couldn't cut it here.

It seems like you are saying that for nearly every mod.

If they prove me wrong, kudos for them. Show me one good game modification for Renegade that wasn't abandoned or destroyed, or just pure shit that they didn't want to fix... aka Reborn.

Also the Soul Survivor mod (don't know site), It isn't abandoned, destroyed ETC and I think it looks good from what they posted here a few days ago, and they are working on the textures and the "Toy Story Syndrome" they said, so I think it will turn out nice.

I'd like to see some screenshots of the game working, but I guess they aren't up to that stage yet.

But flying vehicles will own like mad in that mod. Flying vechs are already so cool in just the regular BF1942...More realistic in many ways. Bit hard sometimes to control, but a better experience.
