Omg, I was just about to play Renegade, but it won't connect. I thought it was my router. Is this because of WW being broken up?

Yeah, I'm the only server online so far. I installed REOL and now my server is up. This same thing works for those who want to play. Install this small file and you'll be online too!

Well I couldn't connect at the time so I didn't know those were up. Now Renegade servers are up, but it seems like there should be more servers on WOL.
