There is actually 2 of them. One get a Nod Stealth Guy and have a technician put c4 proximity mines on you. I did that once and some noobie with a sniper rifles started screaming omg nod is cheating they have flying mines lol. My second trick that i do is get a stealth suit guy and if the game has spawnign weapons then youre in for a lot of kills and very less deaths. Since if u get lucky enough to find a sniper rifle u can ez camp somewhere and hs everytime u see someone. Another idea is putting proximity mines on buggies and humveews thus creating a suicede car explosion.one more thing i like to do is get on top of a hill where u can see peopel runing and take a quick look at someone so their life bar appears and go back into hiding. thern just use jump to jump and shoot that person since their life bar gives away where they are for like 10 seconds.

If I would see a "flying c4" I would immediately shoot at it and go in a safe distance. And suicide cars don't always work.

Anyway it must be a server with only new renegade players, if you want to use those tactics. Otherwise they don't work.

newbs worst fear is a rail gun or a personal ion .. because .. it kills all infantry good, and if u are good (which would make u not a n00b ) ... u would dodge any bullet from a tank from newb .. lol .. its works.

but to actually scare them .. flank em with a buggy, its really funny seeing them spinning and they can't hit u cause they either don't use turret view, or just slow (i killed a mammy that way .. varyy funny) scarying n00bs is like kicking a tree .. u can't miss.

ya if a person doesn't use turret view, they can never kill u in a battle in a semi open field or even thier own base. the buggy moves faster then the mammy turn rate so u can always flank it. so 1 v 1 i always kills mamy givin they arn't usin turret view, but it will take about 45 whole seconds!!! (same to of a ranged tank battle i guess)

Too bad most of the times more enemies coming in 45 secs, when you are attacking a tank. Mammy is way to slow sometimes. But if you use it good you can easily kill alot of buildings and infantry with it.

I have only really found two good uses for mammy's.

- Guarding base entrances (GDI's primarily).
- Finishing off the game quick when Nod has already lost a building or two.

any1 that has trouble with killing NooBs or defending against their tactics is a NooB themself because it is too easy to fend NooB tactics off. and NooBs with stealths dont mix cause they cant use them right and any1 stupid enough to put VISIBLE mines on a STEALTH blackhand is stupid too cause thats the fastest way i know to get shot in the head. and even SBH's with sniper rifles arent deadly cause once they shoot ( and miss ) they can be seen tracked and shot. by the way sk8r how long u been playing?? i used to play about 10 months ago and i recently got on and i played for about 9hrs in 3 days and my RenEvo score is better than yours and i wasnt even trying.
