Is WOL down?

Thanks!

Nice avatar... Is that a mini-version of a wallpaper? If it is, do you have a link? ()

Yah, WOL was down for a little bit for me...

It seems to me that it went off for about an hour twice today...

It comes up as can't connect to Westwood online usually. Just click OK and re-log in. Should work.

It's off an on for me. Sometimes it connects on the first go. Other times it just fails and does not want to let me in.

kriegervWhat other options?

- GameSpy
- Direct connect via server IP
- Couple of other listing programs that people have written (can remember the names now).

Gib

GusIs WOL down?

Thanks!

Same thing i get sometimes: unable to connect to westwood online

sometimes locating servers > operation timed out just ignore it click ok/cancel respectively and reconnect...

have you also noticed that wonderful crash bug....when you disconnect from a game it says leaving channel and times out....but you are still connected for 3minutes (like a ping? pong! event on IRC) you will eventually disconnect but it means using a different nick for a while to avoid this connect to a random game using a different name leave and change names this refreshes your connection and you will be able to use your regular name

If anyone can make sense of that ^ i'll give you a medal
