I would have posted this in the General Topic forum but I figure it would have just been moved here anyway. I jus hope somebody sees it in here.
Here goes:

How do I get my username, DragonFg, out of the clan I am in on WOL. For the life of me I can't remember how. I don't suppose it matters too much cus I never get an invitation to try out for a class, but I'm siick of looking at the sucky rank at sign-on of that old clan my cousin made. He doesn't even play Renegade anymore lol.

under clans click the link that says leave clan. And type in your name and YOUR password not the clans password in the box that ask for it. All done.

There is a website where you can do it but I don't know the URL.

Get ingame and connect to WOL, place the cursor where the menu pops out (on the extreme right). Select the "Clan" option, a browser will appear with many options regarding clans.
