Well all i can say is i hope renguard makes the diffrence in the game and lets people play the game the way it should be played. All anyone wants is to play a game without anyone having an unfair advantage over others.

Good luck guys and hope everything pays off.

ps cheats will always lose.

Renegade cheater search??? No I don't see how that helps at all.

On GSA players can just change names.

And Renguard hopefully is coming out soon.

Still not convinced.

Who decides who goes in that database?

Some people may beleive "mr x" is cheating, but others won't, i've seen these databases on a smaller scale in GSA. It didn't work, just arguements started up over if they was cheats or not.

Your Snipes About, got another new name now?

I stopped SWAT, got bored of Renegade, and don't play it anymore.

But I should be reinstalling it when Renguard comes out.
