you fools killed the bw in less then 2 weeks, nice work well, the site will be moving to an unlimeted bandwidth host (its actually 6 webservers linked together to make one site) so those issues will be a thing of the past shortly.

But then a thing such as "unlimited bandwidth" doesn't exist...

Too bad I wasn't able to see ACK's reply about the Mobile HQ cutscene.

when you are gamespy, and have multiple OC-something-or-other lines, you really don't have to worry about bandwidth, hence, unlimited like.

kopaka649dont use the domain lol http://www.renevo.com/renalert/

That is the url to the OLD site, before the site moved to it's own domain name, that is NOT the current site.
